Tur Abdin is a plateau skirted by the Upper Tigris in Southeastern Turkey where Syrian Orthodox Christians of Aramaic tongue still worship in Late Antique churches. Monks converted the region and the most powerful monastery, founded in the fourth century, is still flourishing today. Documenting more practical orientation: they study computing because they like programming and are good at it. This book has strong appeal to this core student group. There is more than enough material for a semester-long course. The challenge for a course in programming language concepts is to help practical students understand programming
