You can get the specialty study guide. I didn't find it as helpful for me personally. What I actually did, I got one of the practice exams, what actually got that I did was one of the practice exams and then the American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology (ACOG) has a great manual out there that is procedural coding for OB/GYN specialties , or something like that.

I bought COBGC study guide and practice exam from AAPC. I do not have experience coding in OB-GYN yet. Does this study guide and practice exam would be enough to schedule a test? Just thought to ask you that to give test for COBGC certification do we need experience in coding for ob-gyn for few years? How hard is the exam?
