Young readers will certainly enjoy Rosco The Rascal In the Land of Snow. Rosco is a great family pet who acts like one of the kids. It's fun to read portions of the story from his point of view so we know what Rosco's thinking. (I bet we wish we could do that with our own pets.) James and Mandy can't wait for their fun weekend away in the mountains.

Rosco had even gone on a horse-drawn sleigh ride with the whole family—well, more of a horse-drawn wagon ride really, but Mrs. McKendrick had called it a sleigh-ride. The ride had taken place at a farm in the countryside, on a chilly, dark evening.

Rosco the Rascal and the Holiday Lights by Shana Gorian is a book I requested from NetGalley and the review is voluntary. Rosco is a German shepherd dog that has a special talent for getting in trouble. He also just runs loose in the neighborhood. This is a middle grade reader book about Rosco, his kids, and a block decoration contest. Cute story.
